Centuries Still Mark End of Chinese Festivals.

To this day the great gates in the walls of Peking are closed every evening with the queer ceremonies that have been observed for centuries past. Says the Peking and Tientsin Times: "The daily performance is marked with a due ceremony which is quaint and full of interest to the intelligent onlooker, as the closing by no means signifies the mere bringing together of the heavy wooden doors and the barring of the emperor's highway against all comers. At the appointed hour a preliminary signal is given by a large gong or iron shield being struck with a big iron bar 50 times in such quick succession as almost to defy calculation, and this is followed by 100 double strokes commencing slowly and dreamily for the first half, and gradually increasing to half a hundred rapidly; and this set of 100 blows is repeated in precisely the same fashion three times. When the third and last cycle of gong strikes is entered on, a number of old, and, at this season, very much bewadded and muffled up old Charlies start a series of discordant yells to all and sundry to hasten or they will be shut out, and this combination of signals is followed by a jostling stream of people from both directions.

"Presently the rush slackens until only a solitary pedestrian, or possibly a man on a donkey, full tilt, a belated riksha or a heavily laden cart struggles through. Then a movement is made with the gates, yelling bursts out afresh and another rush ensues, the gates being meanwhile half closed and occasionally opened a little way again, until, the outgoers having meanwhile ceased, there is a final scrimmage to get into the city, and the process of closing, which has taken some half hour in all, is completed.

"Then, the huge iron-plated doors having changed to a monster iron pole is dragged up and placed across them on iron supports, being retained in position by a padlock of enormous proportions and of the well-known Chinese type. There are in all in the city of Peking some 19 gates, and the same ceremony is observed at each, but at such thoroughfares as the Hatamen there is naturally more traffic and the process is probably proportionately longer."

KNOW PIGS BY THEIR TAILS

Rather, the Lack of Tails Distinguishes Them from All Others of Their Kind.

"Looking over brand registers the other day reminded me of an event which occurred at Fort Benton in 1866," said the Montana pioneer to a group of friends, according to the New York Sun. "The story serves to illustrate two things—the first, the unerring accuracy of A. B. Hamilton's aim, and again the expedients that are resorted to in order to procure an original brand."

"Hamilton was the first justice of the peace in northern Montana. His commission was issued by Gen. Thomas Francis Meagher, the leader of the famous civil war Irish brigade, who was then acting as governor of the territory of Montana. Hamilton had charge of the American Fur company's post at Fort Benson, and the feat to which I shall refer may have had something to do with his election as sheriff of Chouteau county in later years.

"The company by which Hamilton was employed had about 35 head of hogs that were continually getting mixed up with the porkers belonging to others, and he determined to put a brand upon his animals that would prevent any chance of mistaken identity.

"With some little difficulty Hamilton got all of the company's hogs in an enclosure, went to the office, secured his revolver and a supply of cartridges and seated himself on the fence surrounding the pigs.

"Without getting closer than ten feet to a single one of the animals, Hamilton in the course of perhaps 15 minutes had shot the tail from each. He did not waste more than half a dozen shots in doing it, nor was a single hog injured save that its tail had been clipped off clean. The feat gave him the title of champion shot of the territory."

A Little Care Will Save Many Hopkinsville Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health. The discharges not excessive or infrequent. Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick. Hopkinsville testimony proves it. J. W. Tunks, of 312 W. Seventh St., who is employed at M. C. Forbes' planing mill, says: "The condition of my health was such as to cause me a great deal of worry about my future. I had an almost constant aching across the small of my back and the kidney secretions were highly colored, excessive and irregular, in fact, the disorder was so pronounced that it had been said it bordered on diabetes. I also suffered at times with indigestion which caused me a great deal of distress. At one time I was scarcely able to do any work at all for nearly a year. I doctored and tried various remedies but nothing did me any permanent good until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at L. A. Johnson's drug store. I had them only a few days when I noticed a change for the better and by the time I had finished the box I found they had brought about so decided an improvement in my condition as to convince me of their real worth and I am more than thankful for the relief that I have received."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

It Is Dangerous to Neglect a Cold.

How often do we hear it remarked "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by L. E. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, the up-to-date druggists of Hopkinsville.

pital Saturday, where he had been for the past three weeks. Mr. Mitchell was recognized as one of the ablest lawyers of the State. He had been in declining health for more than a year, superinduced, it is said,

GUS COULTER,

Former State Auditor, is No More.

Mr. Gus G. Coulter died at his home in Mayfield, Ky., May, 1906, at 6:20 a. m. He had been confined to his bed two weeks, says the Mayfield Messenger.

He was taken with inflammatory rheumatism and suffered severely with it until a few days ago, when his brain became affected, from the effects of which he had been in a state of unconsciousness most all of the time until his death.

Gus G. Coulter was born at Briensburg, Marshall county, Ky., August 15th, 1861. He was a son of the late Claude C. Coulter, whose wife was Miss Belle Archer, who was born and raised in Graves county,
but having married in Marshall county he resided there for a few years after his marriage, during which time was born to him this son, named Gus Given Coulter.

In 1898 Mr. Coulter became a Democratic candidate for State Auditor and was nominated at the Music Hall convention, which met in Hopkinsville in 1899, on the ticket with Gov. William Goebel. He was elected to the position of State Auditor
the following November, which position he held for four years, during which time he made one of the most capable State Auditors the State has ever had.

After his term as Auditor expired
he returned to Mayfield, where he and his brother Harry A. Coulter, purchased a large tract of land,
which has been stocked with some of the finest stock in the State.

He was married to Miss Hester Anderson, daughter of Edwin and Elizabeth Anderson, March 6, 1888.

Miss Dorcas Mason has accepted a position as cashier at Cooper's grocery.

OLDEST ROSE BUSH

Has Blossomed Every Season
Since 1806.

On the farm of J. F. Meacham, a few miles from town on the Antioch road, is a rose bush that has bloomed every year for 100 years. The house occupied by Mr. Meacham was built in 1802 and four years afterwards Thomas Kirkman, who settled the place, bought a pink rose, blooming in clusters, from a nursery in North Carolina and set it out under the window of his new house. It stands on the same spot to-day and is now bearing its one hundredth crop of blossoms. The bush is large and vigorous and seems good for 100 years more. Thomas Kirkman was a brother of the man for whom the town of Kirkmansville was named. The place he cut out of the wilderness was in course of time sold and has changed hands several times, but the house remains as he built it and the pink rose he planted under the window has given forth its fragrance to generation after generation. The present owner of the place bought it 30 years ago and he cherishes the ancient rose as an heirloom connecting the living present with the dead past. Hundreds of scions have been transplanted and the rose that Tcm Kirkman planted has lived on and on and gladdened many a heart and home. At the time he bought the old rose, two of his neighbors named Nuckolls and Dupuy each bought one of the same kind, but these have long since died and been forgotten.

It would be well for those with a fondness for genuine antiques to buy a sprout from this old bush that antedates by many years the "olddest inhabitant" of to-day. We doubt if there is an older rose bush
in Kentucky than this one.

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take a cough mixture and it eases the irritation—for a while. You take

SCOTT'S EMULSION

and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; it builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's how Scott's Emulsion deals with a sore throat, a cough, a cold, or bronchitis.

WINE OF CARDUI New York Life.

Hopkinsville, Ky., April 30th, 1906.
Mr. Walter F. Garnett, Agent,
New York Life Insurance Co., City.

Dear Sir:—
It gives me pleasure to acknowledge receipt of statement of optional settlement on 20-Payment Life Policy, No. 223,593, for $1,500.00, issued at age 35, with premium of $52.50, taken out with you Apr. 29, '86. After having been insured for 20 years, I am offered a paid up policy for $1,500 and a cash dividend of $406.88, or the total value may be withdrawn in cash—$1,215.88, (which is more than I have paid in the 20 years) or a fully paid up policy payable at my death for $2,219.00.
The cash settlement of $1,215.88 is equal to Term Insurance at $12.87 per $1,000 and an investment of the balance of premiums with 5 1/2 per cent, compound interest for twenty years. This showing is certainly a creditable one for the New York Life, and I will be pleased to give you my application for $1,000 on the Ordinary Life plan.
Yours very truly, C. E. WEST.

WHAT IS NEEDED

To Complete the Handsome
Y. M. C. A. Building.

Henderson's Y. M. C. A. building is not completed on account of money being short, but last week a determined lot of citizens started out to raise the amount needed before night and doubtless accomplished what they started out for.

Our Y. M. C. A. building walls are finished, "the lid is on" and windows in. We make no criticism for the building not being completed, and believe the gentleman composing the committee will make a rush as soon as they see the way open for it. But "the public" wants to see the building completed and open, and "the public ought to do the handsome thing and come down with the stamps."

A gentleman has agreed to do more than his share in equipping the "gym," when the building proper is finished, and what is needed now is for "the public" to get a move on itself and help the ones who have been carrying the load for over a year. We have not attempted to locate the cause of work being stopped, but have heard that it was a need of funds. If that be true, though we have no suggestion as to maneuver, steps should be taken to arouse enthusiasm and push the handsome building to completion.

It has been over a year since work was begun on the foundation, and such slow progress is not calculated to favorably impress strangers as to our "goaheadativeness." We are not accustomed to letting things move so slowly, and a new enthusiasm should be aroused and the building completed and opened up in a short time.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weakness, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by R. C. Hardwick's drug store. Price 50c.

SOLDIERS' GRAVES.

Both Sides Will Decorate on Different Days This Week.

Tomorrow, May 30, the Federal veterans will decorate the graves of Union soldiers buried in Hopewell cemetery with the usual formalities. On next Saturday the Confederate veterans will have a dinner at Moayon's Hall in connection with the U. D. C. chapter, and there will be a program at the Cemetery in the afternoon.

SNOW.

The Beautiful Was Seen Yesterday By Early Risers.

OVERCOATS IN DEMAND!

In Less Than an Hour Sunday Mercury Dropped to About 30.

Sunday afternoon the mercury took a rise in the tube, climbing up to about 80 degrees. In less than an hour a strong gale was blowing from the West and people who had been sweltering from midsummer heat were hunting up coats and wraps to keep comfortable outdoors. The cold wind was the ragged end of a storm that prevailed in the West and northwest, snow falling in the latter section to the depth of two or three inches.

During Sunday night rain fell and early Monday morning early risers saw a slight fall of snowflakes, blown in from the West. The stray flakes melted as fast as they struck the ground. Yesterday was windy and cold, the clouds obscuring the sun, and the temperature being low enough to cause pedestrians to wear overcoats. Many of the stores, where it was possible, had fires made for people who got chilled while coming in from the country.

The rain in the city was light, but in some sections of the country farmers had tired of waiting for a season for tobacco planting and Saturday and yesterday were making good headway putting out plants, watering them in the hill. We have heard good reports as to how tobacco plants stood the innovation. People who had made contracts with the canning factory to put out a good acreage of tomato plants also made a season, and are pleased with the manner the plants stood transplanting.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood, which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes, "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and, as time has proven, completely cured." Guaranteed for sore lungs, coughs and colds at R. C. Hardwick's drug store. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

GOOD RAIN

The drought was broken Sunday afternoon in South Christian by a hard rain with thunderstorm accompaniments. At Kennedy it was quite severe and several trees were struck by lightning, but so far as heard no great damage was done. The rain was hard enough to make a good tobacco season and yesterday much of the crop was planted, thereby relieving the tenor over planted scraping.

South Main St. Hopkinsville, Ky.

From every land and every clime Kentuckians will turn their steps and set their faces toward the old home for the week of June 13-17, when a grand reunion of all former residents of the Blue Grass State will be held under the auspices of the Louisville Commercial Club. Louisville will be the mecca of the pilgrims and it is conservatively estimated that 100,000 visitors will flock to the metropolis of the Blue Grass State during Homecoming week.

The suggestion of Homecoming week, which came from Miss Louise Lee Hardin, of Denver, Colo., has led to one of the greatest gatherings ever held in the country. Though "Old Home Weeks" have been held in the New England States for many years, Kentucky is the first to invite all of its absent sons and daughters to return to one city at one time, and it is the first which has attempted to secure the name and address of every former resident of the state. How great this task was may be judged by the fact that there are now living in other states and territories over 600,000 native born Kentuckians. The Blue Grass State has given of her best citizenship to the upbuilding of other states. Especially in the central and western parts of the United States have Kentuckians gone in great numbers. Indiana has about 60,000, Missouri over 88,000, etc. In every walk of life, in politics, in law, in medicine, in business, Kentuckians have always been in the forefront. In Lincoln and in Davis, the state gave both to the North and to the South the war presidents.

To Missouri she has furnished one-half her governors and many of her congressmen and senators. The list might be extended indefinitely over the high rank among the distinguished men of their day named. The Breckinridges, Clays, Crittendens, Marshalls and others have in every generation taken a prominent part in the affairs of the state and the nation.

The invitations to attend Homecoming week have met with enthusiastic responses from former Kentuckians in every part of the world. Acceptances numbering about 50,000 have been received from every state in the Union and from fifteen foreign countries.

The preparations for the entertainment during Homecoming week have been made on an elaborate scale. The citizens of Louisville are raising the sum of $8,000 to be devoted exclusively to this purpose. Five parades, the unveiling of two statues, airship flights and many other features have been decided on. The programme for the four days has been arranged with a view to recalling in the most attractive and beautiful form the history of the state.

The first day, June 13, will be given over to welcoming and registering the guests. In the new armory building in Louisville, the second largest of its kind in the United States, which will be the general headquarters for Homecoming week, headquarters for each of the 119 counties of Kentucky will be opened. These headquarters will be in charge of the hostesses and a commissioner named from each county by Governor J. C. W. Beckham. Here the visitors will register and receive badges showing the county of their birth. The formal address of welcome will be delivered by the Hon. Henry Watterson, editor of the Courier-Journal, and the response will be made by the Hon. David B. Francis, formerly governor of Missouri, and the head of the Louisiana Purchase exposition. Other distinguished Kentuckians who will be on the programme during the week are Associate Justice John M. Harlan from Washington, D. C., former Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson, of Springfield, Ill.; former United States Senator Wm. Lindsey and John G. Carlisle, of New York City; former Governor Thos. G. Crittenden, of Missouri; Governor E. W. Hoob, of Kansas; Senator S. H. Pyles, of Washington; Senator Shelby R. Culom, of Illinois; former governors of Kentucky Proctor Knott, Simon

Bolivar Buckner, Wm. O. Bradley and Preston H. Leslie, who has also served Montana as chief executive in recent years. In the afternoon a magnificent floral parade of automobiles and carriages will be given and many handsome prizes will be awarded.

The ceremonies of the second day will be in honor of the memory of Stephen Collins Foster. A life size statue of the composer of Kentucky's cradle song, "My Old Kentucky Home," is now being made by J. L. Roop, the sculptor, and will be unveiled on that day. One of the honored guests will be Mrs. Marion Foster Walsh, of Allegheny, Pa., the only child of the famous composer. A chorus of a thousand voices will sing the songs of the famous composer. "Old Folks at Home," "Old Black Joe," and others of the most popular of Foster's songs. The bands of Louisville and those employed for Homecoming week will be arranged as one and will together play the song that has done so much to attach every Kentuckian to his native state.

Daniel Boone, the hardy pioneer, is chiefly responsible for the colonization of Kentucky, and who, when he first saw the dark and bloody ground, declared it to be a park and not a wilderness, will be honored on Friday, which will be known as Boone day. The exercises of the day will be typical of the period in which Boone lived. Following the unveiling of the statue of Boone, made by Miss End Vandell, and which has been presented to the city by one of her wealthy citizens, the visitors will gather in Cherokee Park, the most beautiful spot in the Falls City. Here a fort and stockade, modeled after Boonesboro, will be built and a mimic reproduction of an encounter between the settlers and the Indians will be given. The victory of the settlers will be celebrated with old-fashioned games, apple parings, sewing bees and other simple amusements which the pioneers greatly enjoyed. A Virginia reel will be danced on a platform which shall be built to hold a thousand couples. At night an allegorical pageant, the theme of which will be the history of Kentucky, will be the center of interest. This pageant is expected to prove the most spectacular event of the week, and it is believed that it will surpass in gorgeousness the annual shows given during the Mardi Gras festivals in New Orleans. Immediately after the parade has covered the line of march the music will enter the new armory building, where Daniel Boone will be presented to one of the most beautiful of Kentucky's young women, who will represent the new Kentucky, and who, together with the pioneer, will lead off the grand march, which will open the ball. The ball itself will be the biggest of its kind ever held south of the Ohio river. The dancing floor in the new armory will accommodate between 8,000 and 10,000 persons.

Kentucky orators and poets will have their day on Saturday, which will be known as Greater Kentucky day. An old-fashioned Kentucky barbecue will be held in Shawnee park on the bank of the beautiful Ohio. Until we meet again will be the spirit of Sunday, the closing day of the reunion. Following the Homecoming week in Louisville County Homecoming will be held by nearly every county in Kentucky. The business organizations of each county has appointed committees, with the commissioners appointed by Governor Beckham, is preparing to take back from Louisville to each county all natives and former residents. The entertainment of the County Homecoming will be simpler than that planned for Louisville, and with the exception of several formal orations and a large county picnic, it has been thought that the visitors would find the greatest enjoyment in seeing their relatives and friends, and spending the days visiting well remembered spots in the neighborhood of their former homes.

Elected Officers Saturday Night and Adjourned Sunday Night.

The annual convention of Kentucky Universalists, which had been in session at the church in this city for three days, closed Sunday night with a sermon by Rev. J. M. Rasnake, pastor of the local church, a reception of members and celebration of the Lord's supper. The Sunday morning exercises consisted of a meeting of the Sunday-school and a sermon. The election of officers took place Saturday afternoon. Mr. J. W. Long, of Madisonville, was re-elected president; Thomas Logan, of Charleston, Hopkins county, was chosen vice-president, and Miss Maggie Clark, of Crofton, was elected secretary and treasurer. Consolation church, this county, was selected as the place for holding the semi-annual convention October next.

BIG LAMB SALE.

Nearly Two Thousand Head Disposed of at Outcry.

At Goodlettsville, Tenn., Saturday the first lamb sale of the year was held and 1,800 lambs were sold for $4.50 each. They go to eastern markets. The sale was held by the Lamb Club, an association of lamb growers of the Goodlettsville neighborhood. The growers call for bids and the entire delivery is sold to the highest bidder. Another sale is set for June 26, at which it is expected the delivery will amount to between 1,200 and 1,500 lambs. Several carloads of cattle will also be sold about the same time under similar conditions.

NEW LAW.

Will Soon Make Bed-scrapping Serious Offense.

A new law passed by the last Legislature making it a felony to destroy tobacco plants, will become effective on June 12th, after which date the penalty for scraping a tobacco bed will be from one to three years in the penitentiary.

Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure, or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

TENT MEETING.

Colored Applicants For Certificates to Teach.

The first examination of applicants for teachers' positions in the colored schools of the county was held last Friday and Saturday. There were sixty-three applicants. The papers will be graded this week and those who took the examination will be notified of the result about Saturday or Monday. As applicants appear for examination they are always registered by numbers. At the examination last week none wanted No. 13, and this number was finally passed without a name being registered against it, it being considered a "hoo-doo." In the white examination May 18 and 19, the party whose name appeared opposite No. 13 failed to pass.

The seventeen white applicants, who passed at this examination, were issued certificates yesterday—six, first class; eight, second class and three, third class.

Famous Strike Breakers.

The most famous strike breakers in the land are Dr. King's New Life Pills. When liver and bowels go on strike, they quickly settle the trouble, and the purifying work goes right on. Best cure for constipation, headache and dizziness. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's drug store.

Police Items.

There was a slight ripple among the police Friday and Saturday. A negro man was arrested for running an express wagon without license, Friday, and Saturday two young bloods were pulled for breach of peace.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickel, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's drug store.

VULCANITE ROOFING.

Has been used in Germany, Denmark, etc., for over half a century. Was introduced into Great Britain and Ireland with great success about 10 years ago, and there is now a great demand for it in the United States.

The Old Reliable Jewelry House

of Hopkinsville is, after all, the best place to get anything in the jewelry line. There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealing, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.
